

Culture stability and preservation tip

A fully grown culture may lose viability shortly. To maintain a viable culture, subculture every week. A well-grown culture can be preserved by freezing at -80C or below in the growth medium with final 5% DMSO or 10% glycerol.

For further information, please contact:
Takashi ITOH, Ph. D.
TEL: +81-29-836-9563
FAX: +81-29-836-9562
E-mail: ito@jcm.riken.jp